

LECTIO INAUGURALIS

THE ACHILLE AND GIULIA BOROLI CHAIR IN EUROPEAN STUDIES

In 2018, Bocconi and the Achille and Giulia Boroli Foundation committed to further strengthen their longstanding relationship in the form of a Strategic Partnership with the naming of an academic position: The Achille and Giulia Boroli Chair in European Studies assigned to Professor Gianmarco Ottaviano.

The research activity will focus on the cost-benefit analysis of European Union Member States, touching four main themes: European Integration and the reborn nationalism trends, single market and globalization in the era of neo-protectionism, immigration and sustainability of the European Economic model and development and inequalities in the new European economic geography.

6 MAY 2019

4:30PM

Bocconi University

Aula Magna

Via Gobbi 5, Milano

4:30PM

REGISTRATION OF PARTICIPANTS

5:00PM

WELCOME ADDRESSES

MARIO MONTI President, Bocconi University

ANDREA BOROLI Vice President, Achille and Giulia Boroli Foundation

GIANMARIO VERONA Rector, Bocconi University

FOR INFORMATION

Bocconi University
Development and Alumni
Engagement Division
Tel. +39 025836.2382

THE ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY OF EUROPEAN NATIONALISM

GIANMARCO OTTAVIANO The Achille and Giulia Boroli Chair
in European Studies, Bocconi University

ALTERNATIVES TO EU MEMBERSHIP: THE NORWEGIAN MODEL

KAREN HELENE ULLTVEIT-MOE Professor of Economics at the Department of Economics, University of Oslo

Online registration

www.unibocconi.it/eventi

CLOSING REMARKS

GIANMARCO OTTAVIANO The Achille and Giulia Boroli Chair
in European Studies, Bocconi University

The event will be held in English. A simultaneous interpreting service will be provided.